PLANNED GIVING

The United Way Foundation (UWF) of the Capital Region was created to support the future needs of UWCR and our community. Please let us know if:

- You would like information about wills and other planned giving opportunities to support the UWF.
- You have included the UWF in your will.

We value our relationship with our donors. As a result, we do not rent, trade or sell our lists of contributors.

See reverse side if you wish to direct all or a part of your gift.

United Way of the Capital Region (UWCR) encourages you to be confident in your charitable giving. UWCR and our program partners are registered with the Pennsylvania Bureau of Charitable Organizations. The official registration and financial information of UWCR may be obtained from the PA Department of State by calling toll-free 1.800.732.0999. Registration does not imply endorsement. Funds raised in the 2009 campaign will be allocated in the 2010-2011 fiscal year. UWCR does not provide goods or services as whole or partial consideration for any contributions made by payroll deduction or any other method of giving. UWCR operates under the highest financial and ethical standards.

UWCR automatically sends receipts for one-time contributions of $250 or more. If you contribute less than this amount and you itemize deductions, you may wish to consider the following ways of documenting your gift for the purpose of complying with federal tax law regarding the deductibility of charitable contributions:

- If you contributed through payroll deduction, make a copy of your completed pledge form and your final pay stub for the year.
- If you paid by check, keep the cancelled check or bank record reflecting your UWCR contribution.
- If you contributed cash or you do not have a cancelled check or bank record identifying your UWCR contribution, please contact us for a written receipt.

For specific questions about the deductibility of your gift, we suggest you consult a tax advisor.
